HCFA-1500 Fill & Print License:Shareware Price:$49.95 File size:15.8 MB EasyHCR to fill in out of the box forms! April 11, 2008 Reviewer: Pili This application to fill out the HCFA-1500 form has actually made my work so much easier. Instead of having to spend hours just filling out the form, I can spend hours and hours on other important tasks like preparing new form templates, completing any pre-existing forms, building reports, and tracking and signing approvals. Even before I started using this application I had been spending hours filling out the 1500 form, but now I spend literally no time filling it out, and my turnaround time is reduced from 3 hours to less than one hour. HCFA-1500 Fill & Print License:Shareware Price:$49.95 File size:15.8 MB Filling out forms to cover all legal aspects of any activity is not only frustrating, but also time-consuming. However, modern businesses now run the whole filling out through computers, and when it comes to healthcare, HCFA-1500 Fill & Print is a suitable example of an application that significantly reduces time needed to fill in a form. Quickly gets you up and running Depending on the type of form you need to complete, it can seem like forever filling one, with HCFA1500 or CMS1500 making no exception. The application is designed to let you quickly accommodate so you don't spend even more time learning how to use it. With a helpful setup wizard that pops up right from the start, you can easily select whether you want to fill in a new form, load from file for an existing patient, one with prefills, or tweak print output and page alignment. Automatic fill of requirement fields The main window constantly displays the form you quickly start filling in with patient data. It can easily be loaded from a database in case the application is used in large environments. What's more, the application lets you save predefined filled requirement fields to save time. Visual tweaking options Several customization options are also available, in the sense that text can be displayed in a color of your choice, with more options for page alignment. Amongst others, you can select the way the date format and output
