The Elden Ring is a vastly unexplored world full of magnificent mythological creatures. At the time of the Elden Ring's birth, the race of humans had yet to emerge from the shadows of history. While the world finds itself in a chaotic state, a large number of humans are scattered about the world. Over time, a young man, Orlein, left his home as he yearned for adventure. He followed the prospects of bounty hunters in search of adventure and developed an affinity for the dark land that lay between the two worlds of light and shadow. Orlein joined the adventurer's guild of Bounty Hunters in the village of Vero Portulak. One day, a notorious Hunter named Francais Frey married the local pastor's daughter, and an even more surprising event occurred when Orlein's former mentor Gringelegae stole a sacred relic from a dwarven forge, and Orlein became his favored servant. After his mentor died, Orlein left Vero Portulak and continued on.
