[The Legend of Heroes] "A world to be explored, an entire world is simply right there!" From the opening scene, the game rushes us into the world between, the Lands Between. Opan's toned voice greets us as we take in the scene of a desolate battlefield where the lands beyond the lands between unfold on the horizon. The excitement of exploring this new world permeates the entire screen. The next scene is a colourful view of a cliff called "The Glacial Edge." The insistent beating of your heart can be felt as your eyes focus on a mysterious tree in the far distance. "Suddenly, as if drawn by a spark, it begins to spread." In the meadow just beyond, a large red and white flower blooms and grows. From the sky, wind blows its petals, as if beckoning to those who will see the blossom's message. The scene changes when you press a button and run to the cliff. Looking off into the distance, you suddenly see the landscape is covered with people, and that an army is crossing the wide plains. With great excitement you step out of the cliff, and experience an adventure in an entirely new world! *If you can't see the game, click here. "My master taught me this powerful spell; it can paralyze enemies. With my spell, I can even cause enemies to get confused. Chakra is particularly useful in battles where I can use my spell."
