Downloader When Nancy is lonely after leaving her old boyfriend, she decides to invest in a movie called The Hangover Games, in order to get closer to an attractive man. Nancy's neighbor Ed is a sociable but somewhat shy man who only is with his friends. His shyness reflects her needs and she invites herself to dinner at their place. Unfortunately, Ed is still upset by the breakup and keeps his distance. But Nancy doesn't understand his motives and that makes her jealous. She becomes the most critical person of him ever and believes that he can be a better man when she finally listens to what's inside his heart. In this inspiring, warm comedy-drama, Adam Sandler plays a middle-aged man in New York City who's divorced and stuck in a miserable job and a relationship with an unfaithful wife. Sandler and co-star Kevin James are best known as comedy partners, but here the two play well-matched, deeply affected and often desperate men, for whom getting together is just the first step toward a future life of happiness. The directorial debut of master of suspense William Friedkin, THE HUNGRY GAME tells the tale of a man who learns that his wife is cheating on him and is coerced to take part in a time-honored ritual, but in his quest for vengeance, he just might get more than he bargained for. In his mid-twenties, Mike is embarking on a new life. He and his girlfriend celebrate his reentering the workforce by relocating to New York to live together in a new apartment. After settling in, Mike decides to check out the neighborhood where they live with his girlfriend's parents. They visit their new home only a few days after he has accepted their dinner invitation. Mike's father-in-law and his wife are a loving couple, which he likes, but he is stuck with his wife's brother who is an arrogant and overbearing womanizer. Mike is relieved to be rid of his annoying brother-in-law and quickly gets rid of the idea to move in with them by convincing himself that his parents' marriage will last and he can get back to his way of life when he gets married. Mike
