by ATLANTIC ONLINE TV NETWORK 8.9 ä,å å°åæ¶©å°åèå"æ å! . Hi, Thanks for helping me. Because of my lags problem with my computer i was trying to download a download manager that was preinstalled on my windows vista computer. I selected on from the search so many programs and finally i found what i was looking for and had to download it. I downloaded it, and installed it on my computer. It was called "KORG PA Manager". I had a problem with the program when i tried to execute the file i downloaded. So i clicked on it and opened it. After trying to find the program in the folder, it was now my computer folder was as large as a door. You could have stuffed a whole library in there. I had difficulty deleting the program to clear it up but i finally did it. When i got my computer to its normal condition, i was able to download another program i needed and finally i was able to have internet on my computer with no troubles at all. I have the internet in my eyes now. Thanks for helping me. Hello I am using Windows 8.1 computer for the last 10 days. I have had some internet on my computer which I used to work with - Now I can't reach the internet on my computer. I remember that I changed the operating system to Windows 8.1 recently and have now problem with connecting to the internet. When I search for the internet on my computer, it says "No Internet Access". My computer is just a few days old and I used Windows 8.1 before.
