Bloody hell! they made it, I don't even own the 360 but when you get to the point of getting your hands on a copy, I can see it as a $5.99 title instead of $50.00! yep I'm a real bargain hunter.R.S. § 38-41-604, and for noting her criminal history in 1992, 1993 and 1995, and violating the terms of probation. If the trial court had imposed "a prison sentence on each count" as recommended by the presentence investigation report, there would be no double jeopardy violation. To violate the Double Jeopardy Clause, however, punishment for a crime must be "for a term exceeding that authorized for the offense." United States v. Dixon, 509 U.S. 688, 703, 113 S.Ct. 2849, 2859, 125 L.Ed.2d 556 (1993). In the instant case, each drug conviction is punishable by a term of not less than one year and no more than five years. The criminal history "time served" was three years and six months. It is clear that the combined effective sentence (one year and four months to three years and six months) is less than the sentence authorized by the jury's verdict. Under these circumstances, double jeopardy is not implicated. II. Statutory Interpretation At the sentencing hearing, the defense requested that the trial court apply the then-existing sentencing statute that provided in part: A defendant who has been convicted of, or who has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, two or more felonies in the past or has been previously convicted of a felony or felonies may not be sentenced to imprisonment for an aggregate term of more than ten years.... La. Rev. Stat. § 15:529.1A(1)(b)(West Supp. 1988). At the time of Johnson's sentence, La. Rev. Stat. § 40:967(A)(1)(West 1991) provided: Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no sentence shall be imposed on a person who at the time of the commission of the offense is a multiple offender *1297 as defined in Subsection A of this Section unless the defendant is adjudicated a second offender. In State v. Kalie, 96-2650, p. 2 (La. App. 4 Cir. 12/26/97); 706 So. bff6bb2d33

In this game, you will be able to create your own character, whose appearance, voice, and music will strongly convey the drama and the joy of each moment. The atmosphere of the world will be rich with the charm and vitality that only a fantasy can provide. FIGHTERS Battle is entered to the Lords who have been betrayed by their blood ties and are on the verge of rebellion. The chosen hero, as a representation of the religion and the kingdom, fights to prevent the subjugation of mankind. CHARACTERS
1. Erkael A follower of the religion, who runs away from home after the death of his parents and suffers through a difficult life. Coming across a few young people gathering at the border, he befriends them and becomes a demon hunter. The king of the demons tells him that there is no hope for the world, and after a while, he meets a child of the royal house, who tells him that he is a candidate to be an Elden Lord. The child asks him to go find a ruler to unite the country and unite the world.

2. Drood, the Demon Hunter A follower of the religion, he is a man who lacks a family, a nation, a religion, and a cause. He goes through a difficult life and suffers the consequences of his own decisions. After hearing of Erkael's misfortune, he decides to take action on the side of the religion and goes to search for Erkael.

3. Furia, the Child of the Royal House A princess of the royal house, she went to the border to look for Erkael to ask him to go back home. The child chose Erkael as a demon hunter so that she could become a Lord. She is placed in the center of the title for the passage of the religion. 4. Killbane, the Demon Hunter A follower of the religion, he was a demon hunter who lost his family when he was ten years old. Wanting to avenge himself, he ran away from home to become a demon hunter. After he returns home, he is determined to become a demon hunter in the same manner as his father. BATTLE SYSTEM Climax Battle: A battle that uses the battle tactics and moves of the two players' party. Strategy Battle: A battle of strategy that takes advantage of your own party. Q: Can anyone recreate this page with the exact mobile.css? [AI88323] You can find the stylesheet at You can apply it to any mobile simulator (like this one) I can't recreate this with no 3rd party tools, but I can add the styles to a new page on my localhost with no 3rd party tools (No Firefox) EDIT: Here is a screen shot of what I'm seeing on my browser The problem is in the top right of the header image and the right sidebar image. Strangely enough it looks great on my iPhone (the screenshots are almost the same as what is on the live site), but looks horrible on my screen on my laptop computer (I run FireFox). A: This is my fallback mobile.css: @media only screen and (min-device-width : 320px) and (max-device-width : 439px) and (-webkit-device-pixel-ratio : 2) and (orientation : portrait) { html { height: 100% } body { height: 100% } /* header, footer, sidebar / #content { width: 100% } #newsletter { width: 100%; margin: 0 } / #topbar { height: 44px; background: url(../../images/top_navbar-mobile
