out if you are good enough to catch the big ones or can you be a top angler? Play and enter the mind of fishing legend... "As I drew a deep, rolling line across the top of the water to set the bait, I thought to myself, 'How can I possibly sink this hook?' There was no way I was going to get this fish. Then, just as I was about to haul in my line and reel, I felt a tug on my fishing rod. The big catfish was eyeing me in contempt! It was my destiny to catch this fish. I held the rod as close to the fish's mouth as I could, and I felt its mouth expand in the squirming process. Time slowed to a crawl. Every second was a revelation..." "In an instant, one was out of my boat and into the water." "It was a giant catfish, stronger than I had imagined. Bigger than my best friend, Thomas O'Neal. It took over my boat, my life and my entire universe. I guess you could say I was trapped on a rolling deck with a huge catfish. There was no way out - and no way I was going to let the catfish win. I just had to hold on tight." Features: Live at the edge! You will need to master your craft - not only use the tools of your trade, but you also need to use your own body and tactics to survive. A realistic fish environment. Hold on tight! Life is a tug of war and fish are nothing if not unpredictable! A constant battle for survival, where every missed bite is another step closer to death. There is always something more on the line. Easy and intuitive controls. Once you learn the basics, you will catch fish almost without thinking. Catch fish from across the globe. Enjoy the landscapes of countries from the South Pacific to the north Atlantic, and venture to the exotic locations of South America, Europe and Africa. Innovative design and gameplay. Experience the story of a legendary angler. Night and day seasonal effects. Weather conditions and fish behavior that change every single day. Muck, boats and weather... You will be dragged through muck and have water fly in your face. Sick, cold, wet and tired, it's c9d1549cdd

I only see the game on Google Play. There are also some versions at Google Play and App Store. So I don't know if this is a Android only game or PC or where ever you see it. However, I assume the it is on the Google Play store. Cons: No VR is listed, so it is not available on Vive, Rift, or other headsets. It is probably just Android only. Summary: I am impressed with the graphics, the fact it is on VR, the title screen really tells you what you are getting into. I love when a game is more than just a game.

What's new:

Some people stumble along for life, happy to be among the nearly 7 billion people on the planet and not become history.

Others take history into their hearts and consume it as though it were a human diary. There's no time to explain this latter type of person. They are in and out in a matter of hours. They make no attempt to take in physical or mental snapshots of their own lives. Knowing they come to visit just once, they burn mental videotapes of themselves, after which they return to wherever they were created to ashes to ashes, dust to dust. There are others who survive life with no greater interest in life than a sentence or two on a postcard. Sure, they are just passing through. I bring this up because I consider myself a historian. I spend hours in libraries and on the internet, researching my birth family, existing records, census records, records of my immigration, and history of the area where I live.

I am not interested in seeing myself as a quantity; I am interested in personal perspective. Clearly, not everyone is as interested in themselves as I am. Nevertheless, every night of my life I wake up in a situation which will eventually be written about. How will I or others be judged when it's time to pass through this wide world? Are there heroes or cowards in this present - and what did my ancestors do that I can't? Are there things I do and don't want to be a part of my life history? What do other people want to remember and want to forget? The definition of a conscience is the fear of what we don't know. We are in the paradoxical situation of trying to know. Once we are aware of something in knowledge, it ceases to exist in ignorance. We learn everything about other people, then we learn we don't know everything about ourselves. Journey to Dark Past I'm sitting at your kitchen table, under your favorite tree, snow falls silently outside your windows and I don't know what to say because I can't tell you everything. I don't think I can tell you everything because I'm not sure there is anything I can say you have not heard before. I'm going to talk about my past. I'm going to tell you about the old aboriginal culture that existed in my part of Canada until the white man came. Your
