. A fast, friendly and versatile Image.editÂ . 157 Ariz. 467 (1988) 759 P.2d 1023 The STATE of Arizona, Appellee, v. Henry Ray DeMARTINI, Appellant. No. 2 CA-CR 87-0348. Court of Appeals of Arizona, Division 2, Department B. June 1, 1988. Redesignated as Opinion and Publication Ordered July 6, 1988. Review Denied September 14, 1988. *468 Robert K. Corbin, Atty. Gen. by Eric J. Olsson, Phoenix, for appellee. Raynor C. Trost, Tucson, for appellant. OPINION LACAGNINA, Judge. Appellant

Henry Ray DeMartini appeals from the judgment of guilt and sentence imposed after he was convicted by a jury of robbery, a class 3 dangerous felony, A.R.S. §§ 13-1901, -1902, -1903, and possession of a deadly weapon during commission of a felony, A.R.S. §§ 13-3102, -3113. Appellant does not challenge the sufficiency of the evidence to support the convictions. He does contend, however, that the prosecutor erred in eliciting allegedly prejudicial testimony from a witness concerning the defendant's prior convictions. Also, it is asserted that the trial court erred in denying appellant's motion for mistrial. In the course of the trial, appellant's former girlfriend, Nellie Roggeman, testified on direct examination that she had known appellant for approximately two years prior to the robbery in question. On cross-examination, she admitted having committed the crime of burglary in the first degree in 1971, and having been convicted of the crime of armed robbery in 1974. In response to a question from the state, she denied her involvement in those crimes, except for the burglary of which she was convicted, and the armed robbery of which she was convicted was an incident where she was hired to do so. On redirect examination, the prosecutor asked her about her husband's prior conviction for a dishonesty offense in 1969. Appellant objected to this line of questioning and the trial court immediately sustained the objection. Then, the following
