the thing is, i'm not sure if the game is even compatible with windows 10. if i open it up on a laptop with windows 7, i don't get the same launcher as i do on my computer with windows 10. i'm sure i just didn't notice the differences, but since i do own the game, i'm not sure why it was removed from the microsoft store. i'm on a laptop with windows 10, and i'm a complete noob. i've been looking at the microsoft store and i see there are two different versions for windows 10: minecraft windows 10 edition and minecraft for windows 10. which one is the one that i have? how can i find it? i was looking at it on my phone, but i don't want to buy the game again. i don't want to go through the whole process. i got the game from the microsoft store on my computer. but now i have lost the game. i think it was in the microsoft store for windows 10. i lost the game when i had to restart my computer. the microsoft store won't even let me log in. download the latest patch for your favorite pc games. it also will update the game to the latest version and keep it up to date.

players can now download the latest features and fixes using the minecraft launcher. the new features include new skins, maps, models, sounds, music, and a brand new feature called the power of flight. this is a new ability that players can use to fly. the windows 7 is well known for its file size and lesser features. you will not be getting anything in the way of user interface. the only thing you are left with is the game itself. the other versions of the game are the windows 8, the windows 10 and the windows xp. the download is done from the website of minecraft.net
