Once again, it has been formatted so that it has the serial number and the year, in which it is updated & and the brief description of its arrangement. So, each cures or description is listed in a separate line. The details of the Homoeopathic and herbal remedies are fairly similar to Kents Repertory. The Homeopathic Book is the largest Homoeopathic Repertory in the world. Homeopaths worldwide would find immense use from this three part series. This would be a classical learning experience and a good resource to have for the students as well as the practicing homeopaths. The new "Atlas of Homeopathy" is a hardcopy book, where the complete works of Dr Murphy is printed on one huge page. "Plantarum Naturalium Similium & Ipsimum The Homeopathic Clinical Repertory has not been revised since its first appearance in 1996. This is now outdated and needs to be updated. The only way to do this is for someone to take responsibility. I've taken on this task and have an idea as to where to begin but still need help. The goal of this project is to gather input and help from homeopathic practitioners and a limited number of homotapers as well. This special edition of Homeopathic Repertory of the United States is the first to use the new, unique NCBI taxonomy to link the Latin names of all the remedies to the indexing definitions used by the National Library of Medicine (NLM). The taxonomy approach also means that this edition of the repertory now includes the newly developed IMMUNE SYSTEM CHEMOTHERAPY category. In this category, potential remedies are presented according to their involvement in the cellular immune system.
